

The image consists of two photographs of a small, handheld electronic device. The device has a black top surface and a blue base. On the black surface, there are two circular buttons labeled '1' and '2' in white. A small rectangular label is also present on the black surface, containing text and a logo. The top photograph shows the device from a slightly elevated angle, while the bottom photograph shows it from a more direct side-on perspective. The device is placed on a plain white background.
